President Smith Counsels Wo- Apostle Becomes Extremely Angered Over Criticism of His Political Course.

POLITICAL PLOT IS FOILED DEMOCRAT STANDS GROUND

GIVE FALSE ADVICE.

Politics was a tabooed subject at the the original plan of some of the ardent Republican members, however. Their program was changed by the direct intervention of President Joseph F. Smith. Several Republican women last fall, acting on the advice of some Republican politicians who are high in the church, sought to use the relief society for political purposes last fall. A political reception for Republican candidates was advertised, using the names of high officers in the relief society. In many instances this use of their names was totally unauthorized. Others who had allowed their names to be used did so under a mistaken impression of the situation. They were told that the church authorities desired that members should wote for William J. Lynch, the Republican candidate for mayor, in order to beat zra Thompson, the American candidate. These tactics resulted in changing many votes from Richard P. Morris, the Democratic candidate, and thus the original party."

Apostle Smoot, as a politican, shook his fits at many persons, including members of his own church, the day of the city election and the day following, in his ardor and anger. Yesterday he shook it at James H. Moyle, who is also a Moring Apostle Smoot for his activity in politics because it has brought trouble to the church and its leaders and discord to the state, and for other reasons.

The episode took place in the forenoon in the office of Martineau & Clark in The Herald building. A meeting of the directors of Clark, Eldredge & Co. had been called there to take up a business matter. The directors present were John Clark, Bishop George Romney, and Messers. Smoot and Moyle.

After the business had been transacted, Mr. Smoot asked Mr. Moyle if it were true he had said in his Saltair speech last August that "Smoot is the sole cause of the American party."

"I did not say you were the sole cause," replied Mr. Moyle, in substance, "but I was not a politican persons, including members of his own church, the day of lower in the city election and the day following. revered women.

Despite these facts, some of the same politicians tried a similar trick this week. Working through a prominent relief society member who is an ardent Republican, they sought to convert women of influence in the society to the idea that the first presidency desired members of the church to vote the Republican ticket as the best way to beat the Americans. as the church to vote the Republican ticket as the best way to beat the Americans. It was planned to have this talked generally at the reception at the Beehive house Thursday evening. The idea of the scheming politicians was that the officers of the society would become convinced this was the course counseled by the authorities and would spread the idea industriously among all members of the society and others who might be influenced.
